

Do NOT weaken the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law, make the federal law tougher. If I want to talk to a telemarketer that I have done buisness with I will call them, I do not need them invading my privacy. I understand that they are in buisness to make money, but they do not have the right to make money at the expence of my privacy.